SENATOR TILLMAN SCORES BANKERS

Wants Currency Legislation Attached to Tariff Bill.

CROP-MOVING PERIOD.

South Carolinian Says "Scoundrels In New York are Squeezing Us" and They Should Sweat.

Washington, Aug 2—Senator Tillman of South Carolina, assailing New York bankers as "scoundrels," went to the White House yesterday and urged the President to come out for a plan of attaching currency legislation to the tariff bill and forcing both through at the same time.

Senator Tillman told the President that it would be feasible either to hitch the administration currency bill as a whole to the tariff bill or to attach such emergency currency legislation to the bill as would make it impossible for any squeeze to result or be brought about in the present crop-moving period.

On leaving the White House, Senator Tillman said the President assured him the plan would be given careful consideration.

"Those scoundrels over in New York are squeezing us," declared the "pitchfork" Senator as he departed from the White House. "I told the President to hitch currency legislation to tariff, and then let these gentlemen sweat That would break up this conspiracy of Eastern bankers."

Senator Tillman told the President he was about the feeblest man physically in the Senate, but he would be willing to go any length to hurry tariff and currency legislation through

GOVERNMENT PRINTERY.

General Shake-up Likely in Big Establishment.

Cornelius Ford, considers it necessary to place the Government printery on the highest possible basis of efficiency.

"This office is reputed to be one of the most efficient printing organizations in the world." said Mr. Ford, "but I believe there is room for improvement. I shall scan all reports closely and keep a strict watch upon all branches of the work. Wherever I find that a change will increase the efficiency of a department, I will make that change regardless of political affiliations. I have no private nor political ax to grind here. I simply want efficiency with economy, and there will be some changes.

"Everything else being equal Democrats will be given the preference. There can be no criticism of that. For department heads and others upon whose fidility I must depend to successfully administer this office, I shall naturally favor Democrats, with efficiency, however, the prime consideration regardless of politics."

In the changes thus far made W. T. Herritage, a Democrat, has succeeded Howard Gayler, Republican, as day foreman of the monotype section. A. J. Arnold, Democrat, has succeeded William Bechert, as night foreman of the monotype section. Both Galer and Bechert have been assigned to lower positions.

Capt. Daniel V. Chisholm, a Democrat, who has been employed in the government printing office for more than 21 years, has been appointed superintendent of works to take the place left vacant by the resignation of John R. Beg.

Joseph P. O'Lone assumed his duties yesterday as private secretary to the public printer. He is from Hoboken, N. J., and was private secretary of the Hudson County Federation of Labor while Mr. Ford was president of that organization.

The promised changes in the offices will be made said Mr. Ford, just as rapidly as he is able to single out those employes who are not producing the required results.

Mr. Wilfred Robinson, has returned from Westmoreland County where he spent several weeks.

REPUBLICANS NOT OF ONE ACCORD

Split on Tariff Bill—Take Vote After Vote on Paragraphs.

RESUME DISCUSSION.

La Follette Alleges Most Manufacturers of Country Ignored List of Questions sent.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The fact that the Republicans in the Senate are far from united on tariff is being daily emphasized . Vote after vote, which is taken on paragraphs of the bill, finds the Republican Senators divided, with the Old Guard going one way and the progressive Republicans another.

This is a source of much satisfaction to the Democrats, who see in the Republican split on tariff hope that the Republican party will not be rehabilitated.

Discussoon of schedule B will be resumed today. In the course of the discussion yesterday, Senator La Follette brought out the fact that most of the manufacurers of the country have gnored he lis of questions sent them by the finance committee in regard to probable effects of revision. Only sixty-six replies out of 2,500 sets of questions sent out have been received. Senator La Follette said the few replies received afforded little information, especially on cost of production.

Senator LaFollette opposed efforts of Senators Dillingham and Page of Vermont, and Gallinger of New Hampshire, to increase duties on granite. The amendment was beaten 19 to 44. Borah, Norris, Sterling, Crawford, Gronna, and Kenyon, as well as La Follette, voted with the Democrats.

EX-ALEXANDRIANS APPEAL.

Calls Attention of Filipinos to Manners and Customs of the United States.

James H. Loh, at one time political aspirant of Alexandia county, and later a resident of this city, recently opened political headquarters in Harrisburg, Pa. During the campaign for Governor of that state Loh issued the following appeal to the natives of the Phillipine Islands:

Filipinos did it ever occur to you what you are missing by not wanting to become citizens of this grand country of ours. There isn't anything like it under the sun. You ought to send a delegation over to see us—the land of the free—land of fine churches and 40,000 licensed saloons, bibles, forts and guns, houses of prostitution,millionaires, and paupers, theologians and thieves; liberists and liars; politicians and poverty; Christians and chain gangs; schools and scalawags; money and misery; homes and hunger; virtue and vice; a land where you can get a good Bible for fifteen cents and a bad drink of whiskey for five cents; where we have a man in Congress with three wives and a lot in the penitentiary for having two wives; where we make bologna out of dogs, cannot beef out of horses and sick cows; corpses out of the people who eat it; where we put a man in jail for not having the means for support and on the rock pile for asking for a job of work; where we license bawdy houses and fine men for preaching Christ on the street corners; where we have a Congress of 400 men who make laws and a supreme court of nine men who set them aside; where good whiskey makes bad men and bad men make good whiskey, where newspapers are paid for suppressing the truth and made rich for teaching a lie; where professors draw their convictins from the same place they do their salaries; where preachers are paid $25,000 a year to dodge the devil and tickle the ears of the wealthy; where business consists of getting hold of property in any way that won't land you in the penitentiary; where fortune 'holds up' and poverty 'hold down;' where men vote for what they do not want for fear they will not get what they do want by voting for it; where 'niggers' can vote and women can't;where a girl who goes wrong is made an outcast and her male partner flourishes as a gentleman; where women wear false hair and men 'dock' their horses tails; where the political wirepuller has displaced the patriotic statesman; where men vote for a thing one day and cuss it 364 days; where we have prayers on the floor of our National Capitol and whiskey in the cellar; where we spend $500 to bury a statesman who is rich and $10 to put away a workingman who is poor; where to be virtuous is to be lonesome and be honest is to be a crank; where we si ton the safety-valve of energy and pull wide open the throttle of conscience; where gold is substance—the one thing sought for; where we pay $15,000 for a dog and fifteen cents a dozen to a poor woman for making shirts; where we teach the untortured Indian eternal life from the Bible and kill him off with bad whiskey; where we put a man in jail for stealing a loaf of bread and in Congress for stealing a railroad; where the check-book talks, sin walks in broad daylight; justice is asleep, crime runs amuck, corruption permeates our whole social and political fabric, and the devil laughs from every street corner. Come to us, Fillies! We've got the greatest aggregation of good things and bad things, hot things and cold things, all sizes,varieties and colors, ever exhibited in any part of the world. Remember we are now all Americans, no North and no South, one country, and one flag and one God."

OFFERED $50,000 TO LEAVE COUNTRY

Suggested That He Could "Doctor" His Testimony in Case.

NAMES TWO PERSONS.

Gathering Evidence Against Eight Indicted Coal Trust Officials in Fraud Cases.

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—David G. Powers ,a special agent of the Treasury Department, and the Government's chief witness in the Western Fuel Company fraud cases to be tried August 26, made the statement that he had been approached with offers of $50,000 to leave the country or "doctor" his testimony.

He told this to Special government prosecutors Matt I. Sullivan and Theordore J. Roche, and chief special agent Wm. H. Tidewell, who is in charge of the Federal detectives gathering evidence against the eight indicted coal trust officials, who are indicted on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government.

This is the second charge of corrupt influence made since indictments were returned. When John L. McNabb resigned as United States attorney, he charged in a letter to President Wilson that pressure had been brought to bear on Attorney-General McReynolds to order the trial postponed.

Powers said that the bribe offer was made by persons claiming to represent the defense. He named two persons.

Powers was employed as special agent for nine days on the recommendation of Chief Agent Tidwell, after he had turned over information to the Government on which the Western fuel officials were indicted.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

AFTER VANDERBILT.

Condemn University Trustees For Securing $1,000,000 From Carnegie Foundation.

Roanoke, Va., Aug. 2.—One of the warmest debates in history of the Roanoke District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was precipitated on the floor of the conference at Fincastle Thursday afternoon, when a report of the committee on resolutions was presented strongly condemning the trustees of Vanderbilt University in their attempt to obtain a donation of $1,000,000 from Andrew Carnegie.

The committee itself split on one section of the resolution, but the paper as a whole finally was adopted by a good majority. The resolution, after referring to the Carnegie fund controversy, said:

"The board of trustees of Vanderbilt University in attempting to accept this proposed donation of Mr. Carnegie have clearly violated their trust, as a large amount of the property owned by the said university was procured with the funds given by Commodore Vanderbilt to the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and to surrender any portion of it to the ownership and management of others on any conditions is a compromise of principle to which our bishops could not consent."

A crossed wire touched his body as he was descending the pole killing him instantly. He was the son of George Strosnider, of Capron Road, Va., and was 28 years of age and unmarried.

PROPOSES SPECIAL TAX LEVY.

Suggests How Revenue Could be Raised Should Prohobition Prevail.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 2.—State Auditor C. Lee Moore called attention yesterday to an error in the printed copy of his taxe segfiregation plan, in regard to the special levy of taxes, which would be required to make up the deficiency of $600,000 a year should the state decide to prohibit the manufacture and sale of liquor.

Mr. Moore says:

In the printed copy of the tentative plan for segregating the subjects of taxation, presented by the Auditor of Public Accounts, the paragraph (page 7) which suggests the loss of revenue to the state, should it be decided to prohibit the manufacture, sale, etc., of ardent spirits, malt, liquors, etc., can be made up by requiring the counties and cities to levy, for the benefit of the state, a tax not to exceed 3-4 of one mill upon each $100 of the assessed value of real and personal property, should read 'a tax not to exceed 3-4 of one mill upon each $1,' not $100,' of the assessed value of real and personal property.'

"This mistake occurring by using figures instead of words, and I will be obliged if the newspapers which have noticed this provision in the plan in their publications will call attention to this error."

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

ANOTHER FOOLISH PROPOSITION.

It seems that the more men attempt to find out facts about Mexico the more they arrive at erroneous conditions. The latest example of this is the request of Secretary of State Bryan for $100,000 to remove all the Americans from Mexico. Such a proposition is ridiculous to any one who is familiar with conditions in Mexico. There are hundreds of Amercans, we might say thousands, who cannot leave Mexico under any consideration. They must stand by their jobs as men and take the consequences no matter in what danger they are placed by the present foreign policy of the United States government.

We particularly refer to the engineers, conductors trainmen, dispatchers, superintendents, and managers of the railways of that country whose places Mexicans are unable to fill; the hundreds of electricians in charge of the great transmission power plants; the mining engineers, upon whom depend the operation of some of the world's greatest mines; the professional men, doctors, dentists and druggists, whose departures would leave the natives in a serious situation, the highly paid mechanical engineers upon whose skill depends the running of the big mills and factories which if shut down would mean starvations to thousands of the poorest classes.

Then there are the Americans who have worked and toiled for years to build up a small competency, or own a home or whe have their all invested in some business or other which they cannot leave unless it will be destroyed.

Mr. Bryan's plan cannot be carried out.

WALTER JOHNSON'S SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.

When the Washington Times, one of our esteemed contemporaries publishes a special edition on the sixth anniversary of the date when a baseball player joined the local team, telling of the glories achieved by the young man who is thus honored, it demonstrates just how well established the national game has become, as a profession, and how the morals of the game have improved during the last decade.

The fans of today can readily recall times when the average professional baseball player was of a very different type of the big league athletes of today. There were exceptions, of course, but the rodwy tactics employed some years back were resorted to largely because those making a living out of the sport found such methods consistent with their ideas of sportsmanship. A few of the old school are still playing, but the days when a base runner found his way around the bases with danger from unfair actions of his opponents are past, never to return to a game that has become a credit to American students of sport.

The addition to the game of just such men as Walter Johnson, who is being honored today, brought about the change for which many enthusiastic lovers of the sport had long clamored. The numerous testimonials from men who stand high in baseball history of the present day commoneds him not only as a great pitcher, but as a clean, high-grade young man whose qualities have made him a favorite in the greatest game the athletic world has ever witnessed. In behalf of the hundreds of Alexandria fans who admire him, the Gazette desires to congratulate Walter Johnson on the sixth anniversary of his career as a big league player.

Our old friend Cipriano Castro has returned to Venzuela. Much refreshed after a delightful trip abroad, no doubt.

A millionaire suitor is afraid to tell his girl that he is rich, on the ground that she may refuse him. We merely wonder what odds the sporting fraternity would give that she wouldn't.

Evelyn Thaw has filed a petiton in bankruptcy. There were some advantages in having Harry tag along, after all.

REPLY TO MR. HEFLIN.

(Communicated.)

A reply to Representative J. Thos. Heflin's Sermon on "the Ideal Woman," as quoted in the Gazette of July 28th.

What caused women to become suffragettes and suffragetters?

What makes the unmarried female a fanatic on the suffrage question?

What makes the unhappy, discontented married woman a seeker of the right to vote?

It is because the one is an unsympathetic witness and the other a silent victim of man's power over woman who is accorded no rights. After spending years of sacrifice in making a home and rearing her children, the wife is told she is no longer needed, some one else is preferred to her. When she reminds her husband of the sacrifices she made for him and for his home,she is told that is a woman's duty. Does he realize his duty? Oh! No! The duty is all woman's! Man has no duty. He has but rights

Is it a wonder then, that women, too, demand their rights? Is it a wonder they forget their duty in the home, made to forget it because they are forced to leave the family they love to go out to work? What is sadder to see than a once beautiful, happy home, broken up?? Yet what woman feels like being a home lover and a home maker when she has lost confidence in her husband? None.

Representative Heflin will say there are many women who are not treated like this and I answer, "If none were, there would be no suffragettes;" for given their rights women would not need to seek them.

Why, then, be surprised that unmarried women, profiting by the sad experience of their sisters, prefer single blessedness with all its privilges to the infelicity of wedded thraldom? Why call them feminine fanatics because they try to protect themselves?

Of course there are women who would corrupt politics, at least so some men think. Could they corrupt them more than they are at present by men who hold high offices, yet resort to graft and all its consequencnt evils?

Should it surprise us that home-loving women are becoming fewer when the head of the house degrades his family? Must women do all the home-making? Is the marriage vow no longer a mutual contract?

The solution of both serious problems is without a doubt a return to the Sacred teachings of Christ: "What God hath joined together, let no man put asunder."

"G."

Merchant's Body Found.

Winchester, Va., Aug. 3.—The dead body of Flavious J. Peacemaker, aged 30 years, was found near his home at Dehaven, this county, yesterday, and a coroner's jury later decided that he had killed himself, whether by accident or design, the verdict does not state. Peacemaker had stated that he intended going squirrel hunting and when he was found there was a bullet wound through his heart and a small rifle lying by his side. He was a merchant at DeHaven until recently, when he met with financial reverses and had sold out his business.

Two long, black braids, the envy of every girl in school were cut from the head of Mary Winslow, twelve years old, while she slept Thursday night in Joliet, Ill. The girl awoke yesterday with her tresses gone.

CHILDREN DOZE UNDER DEBRIS

Lightning Strikes House But Fails to Awaken Imperiled Three.

Pottstown, Pa., Aug. 2.—A bolt of lightning during yesterday's storm struck the house tenanted by Edgar Kirlin and there was such a terriffic crash from falling debris that Mrs. Kirlin rushed upstairs, expecting to find her three children either killed or badly injured. Although they were covered with plaster from the ceiling, all three were still sleeping soundly in bed, as though nothing unusual had happened.

TRAMPLE U. S. FLAG.

Saskatchewan Militiamen Upheld by Whole Regiment.

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 2.—A member of the Saskatoon militia yesterday was tried by court-martial and discharged from his regiment for trampling an American flag under his feet during a parade last night. The members of the regiment threatened to resign if the dismsisal of their comrade was allowed to stand, and offender was at once reinstated.

When the One Hundred and Fifth Fusiliers were marching down the main thoroughfare of the city a girl in a passing automobile waved an American flag in front of one of the members of the bugle band. A man broke ranks, caught the flag, broke the staff in two and tramped the flag under his feet, most of the regiment passing over it.

PLAY GARB PERILS CHILDREN.

Twelve Deaths in Brooklyn Due to Cowboy Suits.

New York, Aug. 2.—Twelve children at play here have been burned to death in Brooklyn this summer while wearing fringed Indian and cowboy suits. The death today of the 12th victim, a 5-year old girl, caused Dr. Charles Probts, coroner's physician, to publish the fact and warn parents against letting their children wear play costumes trimmed with inflammable fringes.

YOUNG PYROMANIACS.

Doylestown, Pa., Aug. 2.—The mystery surrounding the numerous fires at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Klinehoff, on a farm about a mile from Wrightstown, was cleared up when Deputy State Fire Marshal William F. Wilkins secured confession from a 12-year-old daughter and a son, aged 8, who admitted they had started the fires and told how they did it.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

CLASH EXPECTED.

Trouble Brewing Between Labor Men of Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 2.—A spectacular clash between E. C. Davidson, president of the Virginia Federation of Labor, and John Hirschberg, president of the Central Trades and Labor Council of Richmond, is expected to take place here next Monday night in connection with the Brown-Koiner controversy.

It is said that the metal workers of the entire city are up in arms over the recent repudiation of the action of the executive board of the State Federation of Labor endorsing J. Thompson Brown over Koiner in his candidacy for state commissioner of agriculture, and that the metal workers would back the executive board in its action to the bitter end.

COMMISSIONER'S REJOINDER.

Makes Reply to Published Statement of Governor.

Richmond, Va., August 2.—Governor Mann, coming out squarely in opposition to the re-election of Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Koiner on the ground that the incumbent has failed to co-operate with the united agricultural board of which he is chairman and which Mr. Koiner has characterized as the "fifth wheel of the wagon" has drawn a hot rejoinder from Commissioner Koiner.

In his statement the Commissioner declares that this is the first time in the history of the Commonwealth that the Governor has undertaken to use the power of his office to defeat a state officer for re-election as a punishment for refusing to sacrifice the usefulness of his office to gratify an ambition to "rule or ruin." Together, Commissioner Koiner denies point blank all the charges of the lack of co-operation brought against him by his opponents, and defies the Governor or anyone else to substantiate a single instance of this nature, and takes the chief executive over the coals for his eleventh hour attack, accusing the governor of the "veriest hypocrisy."

Killed at a Sawmill.

Williamsburg, Va., Aug. 2.—R.M. Garrett, 35 years old, a widely-known sawmill owner of Charles City county, was instantly killed Thursday while at work. A large piece of scantling caught in the machinery and fell against his head crushing it, and otherwise disfigurnig him.

Charge Against Conductor.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 2.—O. L. Sallie, conductor employed by the Virginia Railway and Power Company, was arrested yesterday afternoon and held as a fugitive from justice from Winston, Salem, N. C.

Sallie is wanted in that city on a serious charge by a young lady whom he is alleged to have been engaged to marry.
